

FICTION FOR CHILDREN

Age groups 6-8 years (CLASS 1 - 2)

THE THINGS WE REFUSE TO LET GO HOLD US

A camel travels the desert collecting memories and keeping them in his sack that he carries on his back. Find out what happens when the load becomes too heavy to carry.

VAT Inc. Kshs 290
VAT Exc. Kshs 250

VAT Inc. Kshs 290
VAT Exc. Kshs 250

HABITUAL DECISIONS HAVE LONG TERM CONSEQUENCES

Monkey and Man cook together and split the food Halfway. However, Monkey isn't just satisfied with his share. He comes up with a cunning plan to get more food than his friend. Does it work out?

VAT Inc. Kshs 290
VAT Exc. Kshs 250

VAT Inc. Kshs 290
VAT Exc. Kshs 250

EAST OR WEST HOME IS BEST

Gumba feels tired of the work his fellow fingers make him do. So he heads off to visit the mguu family with the hope of getting some peace of mind. Does he find what he seeks? Does he fit in with the Mguu family?

VAT Inc. Kshs 290
VAT Exc. Kshs 250

VAT Inc. Kshs 290
VAT Exc. Kshs 250

BUILDING STRONG FRIENDSHIP

When the Ant and Dove are in danger, will they help each other?

VAT Inc. Kshs 290
VAT Exc. Kshs 250

VAT Inc. Kshs 290
VAT Exc. Kshs 250

VAT Excl. ksh. 225
VAT Incl. kshs. 261

CURIOSITY IS IMPORTANT FOR YOUNG MINDS

The years up to four are intensely formative ones for children's rapidly growing minds. Everything they encounter is new, strange and wonderful. This book helps children channel their immense curiosity into constructive learning as they learn the names of all the weird things found in a mouth

VAT Inc. Kshs 290
VAT Exc. Kshs 250

VAT Inc. Kshs 261
VAT Exc. Kshs 225

WORD HARD AND PLAY HARD TOO

Gamba the Gecko likes to watch Luka and Lusi play their drums. Gamba loves to sing and dance. But what he really wants to do is play the drums. Find out how Gamba works hard (and has fun too!) making his drumming dream come true. Stamp your feet and clap your hands as you join Gamba in the Gecko Echo songs.

VAT Exc. ksh 250
VAT Incl. ksh 290

BELIEVE IN YOUR DREAM. IT IS VALID.

Kui is a girl with big dreams. She lives with her mother and little sister in Nairobi. One day when coming from school, she meets a boy who lives at a garbage dump. The boy cannot afford to go to school. Kui and her friends come up with a plan to help. Will the plan succeed?

VAT Exc. ksh 250
VAT Incl. ksh 290

LEARN ABOUT THE SENSE OF TASTE

Paka onja anahisi njaa ya kupindukia. Mate yanamdondoka anapoingia kwenye hoteli na kuona sahani zilizojaa vyakula tofauti. Anaonja vyakula hivyo na kuvitema mara moja. Kwa nini anavitema ingawa ana njaa? Paka onja atakula nini? Soma hadithi hii ya kusisimua upate majibu.

FUN WAY TO COUNT 1-10

A collection of rhymes and songs that help children learn how to count from number one to ten. The rhymes are drawn from the East African environment making them easy to understand and relate to.

VAT Exc. ksh 268
 VAT Incl. ksh 310

LEARN THROUGH PLAY AND FUN ACTIVITIES

A collection of counting, skipping and clapping games, songs, rhymes, chants and ditties.

VAT Exc. Ksh 276
 VAT Inc. Ksh 320

TEAMWORK IS THE KEY TO SUCCESS

It takes different types of machines to build a new road. Every person has a role to play. Teamwork means working together to achieve success.

VAT Exc. Ksh 170
 VAT Inc. Ksh 197

DISABILITY IS NOT INABILITY

Ingawa Musa haoni, ana rafiki wa kweli ambaye hutembea naye kila wakati. Je, wanafaana vipi? A blind person can be a wonderful friend.

VAT Exc. Ksh 250
 VAT Inc. Ksh 290

INABILITY IS NOT DISABILITY

Kilomi cannot walk but can do many other things. Read to find out what Kilomi can do.

VAT Exc. Ksh 250

VAT Inc. Ksh 290

KEY FEATURES

- Some are approved by KICD
- Reading for pleasure improves empathy, relationships with others, reduces depression and dementia, improves wellbeing and educational outcomes for children
- Interesting and authentic African stories that keep you turning the pages
- Kiswahili translation that is beneficial for children who are learning Kiswahili.
- Contains discussion questions that aid greater understanding of the stories and help teachers and/ or parents evaluate comprehension.
- Familiar setting and characters with local names making it easier for children to identify with the characters and the different situations presented.

BRINGING THE BOOKS TO LIFE

- Storytelling- Children sit in groups and provide alternative ending for the story
- Listen and Tick- children listen carefully when the story is being read and tick pre-selected words each time they hear them.
- Dramatize- Children dramatize or role play the story as it is being read
- Discussion session – the questions at the end of the stories provides opportunities to engage with children and discuss key lessons.
- Anagram challenge- Facilitator picks a lengthy word and ask children to come up with as many words as possible from it.

OBJECTION	COUNTER OBJECTION
The Kiswahili translations seem complicated for the given age-group	The translations have been done in context to retain meaning. The language enable children build their vocabulary and can be read by children in higher grades.
The illustrations in some of the books are scary	On the contrast, children find the illustrations vibrant and interesting since they are very familiar in cartoons they watch
Some book are yet to be approved by KICD	Up to 70% of our readers are KICD Approved which provides an assurance that we provide quality material to the market. The process is done in phases and is currently on going thus the titles will eventually get approved.
Translations - Some of them do not have translations	We are currently working on the Kiswahili translations

Additional notes